THE PREMIER HOTEL AND CONVENTION CENTER OF THE SMOKIES

Memories to last a lifetime

The Great Smoky Mountains are 5 miles from the Holiday Inn Pigeon Forge Hotel and Convention Center. The hotel is located within minutes of outlet shopping malls, Dollywood, Dixie Stampede, and other major Pigeon Forge attractions.

In addition to nearby hiking, snow skiing, snowboarding, horseback riding, rafting, and zip-lining, the hotel is close to tennis courts and golf courses. Value-packed vacation packages make it easy and affordable for travelers to experience the Smokies in style and come back "home" to a relaxing, clean, and beautiful hotel.

Make a Memory this Year...In the Heart of All the Fun!

Full Service and Full Comfort!

The hotel's 206 tastefully appointed guest rooms each include two full size beds or one king bed. Romantic Jacuzzi suites with fireplaces and spacious family suites that accommodate up to eight guests are also available. All rooms are equipped with refrigerators, microwaves, and coffeemakers.

Louie's Restaurant, conveniently located in the lobby of the hotel, serves authentic Smoky Mountain specialties and American favorites. Breakfast and dinner are served daily. In addition, in case you simply want to relax in the comfort of your room, Louie's also provides room service during hours of operation.

The weather is always perfect in the sunlit indoor recreation center with its tropical atmosphere. Enjoy the indoor heated pool with its towering waterfall, whirlpool, and cyber arcade. The hotel also offers a fitness center and business center free of charge to all registered guests.

The Holiday Inn Pigeon Forge is the perfect place to hold your next meeting, convention, or social event. With 11,600 sq. feet of flexible elegant meeting and banquet space serving groups of up to 850 people, the hotel can accommodate your every need. The convention services staff will oversee every detail, while the catering and banquet team provide excellent cuisine.
